Advisor's Recommendation

Ms. Nemjala Bajracharya

Nemjala was a quiet listener but alert and thoughtful in our advisement sessions. She sometimes shared issues related to her students. Although she had very little to contribute verbally she actively listened and showed good comprehension of the matters discussed. She showed a significant growth personally and professionally over the time she was with us. The PTTP has enhanced her teaching skills. With the momentum of the course, she gained confidence. She learned to plan lessons according to their objectives and tried to give personal attention to the students she taught. In her placement schools she was ever ready to assist her cooperating teachers and they enjoyed working with her.

She set up a wonderful educational fair in collaboration with a fellow trainee and the teachers of Pushpanjali School where her students explained their games and projects enthusiastically to the visitors. It was apparent that the students had developed their speaking skills as well as their self-esteem.

Nemjala now has to learn to manage her time efficiently in order to plan effective lessons where her students will get opportunities to work in groups and gain first hand experiences. I wish her the best for a successful career as a teacher.

It is certified that Miss Nemjala Bajracharya, daughter of Mr. Mum Raj Bajracharya, a resident of Gopalchowk, Bubhal-18, Lalitpur has been teaching in this school in primary level since the year 2059.
